PVJA

- A PVJA student needs tuition assistance. If you're able to help, contact Jackie Dunlop or Bonnie Riebel.
- Congratulations PVJA: Our school is the one of the few in our conference where all the students taking the Deibel test, scored in the well established reading skills. To keep up with the good work, we need someone willing to come in for one hour each day to listen to students reading. If you could commit to one day a week, or month, please contact Renee Otts or Jackie Dunlop. Thank you for your prayers and support of our church school.
- Talent Show - Saturday February 26 at 7:30 pm in the school gym. Admission $4 per person. Food will be sold.
- This is the last chance to order fruit for this month with delivery Sunday 2/27. Call 241-1779 to order. Don't miss out on the benefits of helping support our school and having some of the best fruits of the season.

REVERENCE IN THE SANCTUARY

The moral taste of the worshipers in God's holy sanctuary must be elevated, refined, sanctified. This matter has been sadly neglected. Its importance has been overlooked, and as the result, disorder and irreverence have become prevalent, and God has been dishonored. When the leaders in the church, ministers and people, fathers and mothers, have not had elevated views of this matter, what could be expected of the inexperienced children? They are too often found in groups, away from the parents, who should have charge of them. Notwithstanding they are in the presence of God, and His eye is looking upon them, they are light and trifling, they whisper and laugh, are careless, irreverent, and inattentive. They are seldom instructed that the minister is God's ambassador, that the message he brings is one of God's appointed agencies in the salvation of souls, and that to all who have the privilege brought within their reach it will be a savor of life unto life or of death unto death. {5T 496.2}
