PVJA

•A PVJA student needs tuition assistance. If you're able to help, contact Jackie Dunlop or Bonnie Riebel.

•If you would like to contribute a recipe for the cookbook or provide lunch for the students, contact Jackie Dunlop.

•Pewee Valley students are selling Morning Glory seed packs to raise money to purchase a new companion ferret for Cocoa. The cost is $1 for a pack containing 20+ seeds. See a student for purchasing!

•Science Fair and Open House are Sunday, April 3, 1-3 p.m. The students' science projects will be judged and on display. This is a great time to invite potential students to come and tour the school.

Community News

The ABC Bookmobile will be here next Saturday evening from 8-9 pm.

Do you have a passion for ministry? Christian Record Services for the Blind is looking for mission-minded people to join us in ongoing ministry opportunity. Please come to Cohutta Springs Conference Center in Crandall, Georgia, April 15-17. This retreat offers a weekend of spiritual renewal, social interaction, and a learning environment where you can experience firsthand the needs and goals of this 112-year-old Adventist (GC) organization. There is no initial cost to attend this retreat; pledges of support and a freewill offering will be taken during the retreat. To learn more and to register, visit www.christianrecord.org/cs11 or email maurib@verizon.net. To phone in your registration, call 410-541-5294. Registration deadline: March 28, 2011.

REVERENCE IN THE SANCTUARY

When a church has been raised up and left uninstructed on these points, the minister has neglected his duty and will have to give an account to God for the impressions he allowed to prevail. Unless correct ideas of true worship and true reverence are impressed upon the people, there will be a growing tendency to place the sacred and eternal on a level with common things, and those professing the truth will be an offense to God and a disgrace to religion. They can never, with their uncultivated ideas, appreciate a pure and holy heaven, and be prepared to join with the worshipers in the heavenly courts above, where all is purity and perfection, where every being has perfect reverence for God and His holiness. {5T 500.1}

The joy and blessings of the Sabbath conclude and begin again
